SUMMARY

I'm a 19 year old journalist passionate about learning and developing the techniques required in news broadcasting. I'm currently studying broadcast journalism at the University of Salford, based at Media City, alongside freelancing for EWTN, the world's biggest Catholic news provider. I worked as a journalist for the Catholic Herald for two years, managing email marketing for an audience of over 30,000, and producing video and written reports. I was recently elected as the Head of News at Shock Radio & TV, where I manage a team of 80 to produce a weekly news podcast, daily news bulletins, web articles, and social media content.
